Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Committee is reviewing the HUMINT Collection Plans you transmitted in response to my letter of November 7, 1985. These documents will be of assistance in the Committee's continuing review of U.S. human intelligence capabilities.

I very much appreciate the efforts you made to resolve difficulties over access to these documents after your interim response of March 17, 1986. I am sure that this spirit of cooperation between the Committee and the Agency on such matters will continue in the future.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Lee H. Hamilton
Chairman
